State Convention Delegate Election

Janie Keys requested nominations for the Club's delegate to the upcoming State Convention in Lubbock, TX, March 28-30. Phyllis Noonan nominated Marcia Edwards. All were in favor of this nomination. Marcia was elected delegate by acclamation, and will report back to members at the Club's April 3 meeting.

Announcements

Janie announced that the next meeting on March 6 will be held at the First Unitarian Universalist Church. The Triumphant Love Lutheran Church will not be available on that day due to "Ash Wednesday" services. Kathryn Govier announced that the handicapped parking at the Unitarian Church is open already and available for use.

Mollie Tower stood up and introduced herself as a new member. Mollie and daughter Debbie Tannert had given a 30-minute presentation at the January 16 9:30 a.m. meeting about music memory programs.

Nan Hampton announced a concert in the round by the Miro Quartet at Mercury Hall (615 Cardinal Lane) at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, March 10. This will be presented as part of the Salon Concerts. Toby Blumenthal-Phillips added that master classes will be taught on Saturday at the U.T. Butler School of Music by individual Miro Quartet members. Then the students will join the Miro Quartet in a performance.

Angela Smith announced a performance by the Inside Out Steelband at 7 p.m. on Thursday, February 21. The concert will take place at the McCallum Fine Arts Academy, and there will be no admission charge.

Community Service Committee Co-Chair Charles Palmer announced that he had extra copies of the annual reporting form with him. The form is also available online. The report should cover March 2018 through February 2019, and be submitted to him or to Co-Chair Kathryn Govier before the end of February.

Marcia Edwards announced she is glad to see Catherine van Zanten at today's program.

The meeting adjourned at 11:09 a.m.
