First Unitarian Universalist Church
4700 Grover Ave., Austin, Texas

President Sarah Harriman called the business meeting to order at 11:02 a.m. There were 38 members and 16 guests in attendance for the program. Seven members of Carlie Burdett's family attended the program. Carlie passed away in August of 2019. She was a member of the Wednesday Morning Music Club, and had planned to perform works she had composed or arranged that are on today's program. She had also planned to read Robert Frost's poem, "My November Guest." The orientation for today's program is NFMC's Parade of American Music. Carlie's life was honored today, and her obituary was read out loud. Please see pages after these minutes for the program as performed. The business meeting started with the approval of the minutes from the October 16, 2019 meeting as distributed.

Announcements

Sarah Harriman told members that an article with photos entitled "Sue Breuer and Lee Meyer Retire from OIO Board" was in the November 2019 issue of Opera in the Ozarks' Good News Letter. Both are longtime members of Wednesday Morning Music Club. Sue is shown receiving the Inspiration Point Fine Arts Colony (IPFAC) Pacesetter Award from OIO President Carole Langley in 2016. Lee is shown in two photos. In one photo she is shown holding the President's Award of Merit which she received in 2019. In the other photo Lee is shown as retiring in July of 2019 from the Board of Trustees of Inspiration Point Fine Arts Colony.

Carol Dewar reminded members that the Metropolitan Opera Live cinemacast on Saturday, November 23 will be of Philip Glass' Akhmaten. It starts at 11:55 a.m. (CST).

Today's music program as performed is below. The business meeting adjourned at 11:06 a.m.
