

Wednesday Morning Music Club

Club Meeting
March 18, 2014, 10 AM
Texas Federation of Women's Clubs
23112 San Gabriel, Austin, Texas

President Carolyn McColloch opened the meeting on time, welcoming 39 members and 5 guests.

Judy Trejo led the Collect, and Debbie Cavin was the program leader.

The Concert Program:

Today's program was dedicated to Piano Music.

The concert commenced as written in the year book and no changes were noted.

Photographer Ashley Eledge was absent and Kit Thompson substituted for him.

Business:

The Minutes of March 4, 2015 were sent by e-mail, posted at the bulletin board and were approved.

President's Report:

As was noted in the newsletter, the Centennial TFMC convention in Brownwood will be held from March 19 until March 21. Several of the WMMC members will be attending, and Carlie Burdett will bring her delegate's report to the club meeting on April 15.

Officer Report:

Maxine Gomes, chairman of the Bonnie Cummins Fielder Career Advancement Grant, asked members to please attend the presentation by the five outstanding vocal finalists at 1 PM. Maxine will give a detailed report at our next meeting.

Announcements

Catherine van Zanten announced a concert by the Balcones Community Orchestra on Sunday March 22, at 4 PM at First Presbyterian Church, 8001 Mesa Drive. Jessica Mathaes will be the soloist. Admission is free.

Recognition of Guests:

The president warmly greeted all guests. Bill Yicks introduced his friend Laresa Fowler. Marcia Edwards introduced Jennifer Clever, Judy Ames, and Katy Moor, and Janie Keyes introduced her husband Ivan Milman.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:05 am.
